

PRIVACY NOTICE

Students who access support

WHAT INFORMATION DO WE HOLD ABOUT YOU?

Information we collect from you

You provide us with personal data when you apply, enrol or apply for support with the College via the online or paper based routes. This includes your name, address, date of birth, contact information, gender, next of kin/parent/carers, previous education and qualifications, and any medical or support needs. Bank account information and details of your, or your parents/carers financial details may also be collected if you apply for financial support. We also collect information about ethnicity, medical conditions and offences.

Other information

We also hold other information about you including your academic work, attendance, progress and any disciplinary or behaviour records; records of applications for support and bursaries, information; advice and guidance; records of tutorials, work experience; exam achievement; and any other information collected as part of your education and training programme. This may also include copies of your Education and Health Care Plan if you have one or other detailed information about you that enable us to support you effectively. If you attend counselling sessions, personal information will also be discussed and recorded to enable the counsellor to support you.

We may keep information contained in any correspondence by post or email. We may record phone calls.

We may also obtain other information about you permitted by law from other sources. This may include from previous educational institutions, social services, the police or other agencies.

WHY DO WE COLLECT THIS INFORMATION?

We collect information in order to enable us to fulfil our legal obligations in relation to providing further education in line with the Further and Higher Education Act 1992, to comply with the requirements of government funding agencies, and to meet other statutory requirements. We also collect information that is not a legal obligation but is to enable us to support you in your studies as effectively as we can. You have the right not to share this information if you wish. Any impact on the support we can provide you will be discussed with you if choose to do this.

WHO MIGHT WE SHARE YOUR INFORMATION WITH?

We will keep this information about you confidential. We will share the information with government funding agencies (the Education and Skills Funding Agency, the Office for Students, the Student Loan Company) in order to comply with our legal duties. We may also share the information with national bodies for the purposes of monitoring and research. If you access support from the College, we may also share some of your information with external agencies or companies to enable us to support you, these include taxi providers, bus companies, and external support agencies. If you are an apprentice and access support, we may also share some of your information with your employer. This is to allow them to support you in the workplace.

We may be asked to share data with other third parties where there is a lawful reason for their request. These may include: the police, social services, legal firms acting on your or the College's behalf, insurance companies acting on your or the College's behalf, HMRC, other government agencies.

We will not share your details with any other third party including commercial companies without your consent to do so.

WHAT DO WE DO WITH YOUR INFORMATION?

We collect this information in order to process your application, ensure you are studying on an appropriate course, receive the necessary support, and to support your studies.

The information is held on College data management systems and may be used by teaching and support staff in order to support your education and training, to report on overall College performance and to safeguard you and other students, staff and visitors.

As part of the overall data we hold about all students, we will use the information to analyse and report, in line with Government requirements, on the College's overall performance against several indicators. As aggregated data it will be used to support the College's claims for government funding and as aggregated and anonymised it will be used by the Department for Education and its agencies to calculate and publish performance data about the College.

Transfer of your personal data outside of the European Economic Area (EEA)

We do not transfer your personal data outside the EEA.

HOW LONG DO WE KEEP THIS INFORMATION ABOUT YOU?

We keep information in accordance with our document retention policy. Retention periods are in line with the length of time we need to keep your personal information in order to manage and administer your education and training and handle any future information issues. They also take into account our need to meet any legal, statutory and regulatory obligations. These reasons can vary from one piece of information to the next. In all cases our need to use your personal information will be reassessed on a regular basis and information which is no longer required will be disposed of.

HOW CAN I ACCESS THE INFORMATION YOU HOLD ABOUT ME?

Subject access requests

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) grants you the right to access particular personal data that we hold about you. This is referred to as a subject access request. We will respond within one month from the point of receiving the request and all necessary information from you. Our formal response will include details of the personal data we hold about you, including the following:

- Sources from which we acquired the information
- The purposes for processing the information, and
- Persons or entities with whom we are sharing the information.

You can make a subject access request by completing the request form or by emailing it to lhazel@leicestercollege.ac.uk.

WHAT ARE MY RIGHTS?

Subject access requests

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) grants you the right to access particular personal data that we hold about you.

Right to rectification

You have the right to obtain from us, without undue delay, the rectification of inaccurate personal data we hold concerning you. Taking into account the purposes of the processing, you have the right to have incomplete personal data completed, including by means of providing a supplementary statement.

Right to erasure

You have the right to obtain from us the erasure of personal data concerning you without undue delay.

Right to restriction of processing

Subject to exemptions, you have the right to obtain from us restriction of processing where one of the following applies:

- The accuracy of the personal data is contested by you and is restricted until the accuracy of the data has been verified;
- The processing is unlawful and you oppose the erasure of the personal data and instead request the restriction in its use;
- We no longer need the personal data for the purposes of processing, but it is required by you for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims;
- You have objected to processing of your personal data pending the verification of whether there are legitimate grounds for us to override these objections.

Notification obligation regarding rectification or erasure of personal data or restriction of processing

We shall communicate any rectification or erasure of personal data or restriction of processing as described above to each recipient to whom the personal data has been disclosed, unless this proves impossible or involves disproportionate effort. We shall provide you with information about those recipients if you request it.

Right to data portability

You have the right to receive your personal data, which you have provided to us, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and have the right to transmit this data to another controller, without hindrance from us.

Right to object

You have the right to object, on grounds relating to your particular situation, at any time to the processing of personal data concerning you, including any personal profiling; unless this relates to processing that is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or an exercise of official authority vested in us. We shall no longer process the personal data unless we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing, which override the interests, rights and freedoms of you or for the establishment exercise or defence of legal claims.

Right to not be subject to decisions based solely on automated processing

We do not carry out any automated processing, which may lead to an automated decision based on your personal data.

Accuracy of information

In order to provide the highest level of customer service possible, we need to keep accurate personal data about you. We take reasonable steps to ensure that accuracy of any personal data or sensitive information we obtain. We ensure that the source of any personal data or sensitive information is clear and we carefully consider any challenges to the accuracy of the information. We also consider when it is necessary to update the information, such as name or address changes and you can help us by informing us of these changes when they occur.

WHO CAN I CONTACT IF I HAVE ANY QUESTIONS OR CONCERNS?

If you have any questions or queries which are not answered by this Privacy Policy, or have any potential concerns about how we may use the personal data we hold, please write to the Data Protection Officer at Leicester College, Freeman's Park Campus, Welford Road, Leicester, LE2 7LW or email lhazel@leicestercollege.ac.uk.

If your complaint is not resolved to your satisfaction and you wish to make a formal complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO), you can contact them on 01625 545745 or 0303 123 1113. You also have the right to judicial remedy against a legally binding decision of the ICO where you consider that your rights under this regulation have been infringed as a result of the processing of your personal data. You have the right to appoint a third party to lodge the complaint on your behalf and exercise your right to seek compensation.

Policy changes

This Privacy Policy is regularly reviewed. This is to make sure that we continue to meet the highest standards and to protect your privacy. We reserve the right at all times, to update, modify or amend this Policy. We suggest that you review this Privacy Policy from time to time to ensure you are aware of any changes we may have made, however, we will not significantly change how we use information you have already given to us without your prior agreement. The latest version of this policy can be found at on the College's website.
